Profile

I am currently studying M.S. Computer Science at University of Texas at Arlington. My last job was as a Junior Software Engineer in PHP department at Cogniter Technologies. The only thing I expect from my jobs is enlightenment, in any way possible. As I believe every second that one works or spends on educating himself/herself never goes to waste, one or the other day it's gonna show it's worth. Life is all about challenges and learning from challenges.
